

AON/CASW SCHOLARSHIP

Through the generosity of AON, the broker for the CASW liability insurance program, scholarships are made available. Scholarships will be awarded to assist members of member organizations to attend the CASW national social work conference.

Criteria

- Recipient is a member in good standing of his/her provincial/territorial social work organization.
- This scholarship will not be awarded to the same individual more than once.
- The recipient will not presently be or have been a CASW Board Member within the past two years.
- The successful applicant will agree to write a short article for the CASW Bulletin on the event attended.
- The CASW Executive Director will determine the number and amount of the scholarships.
- Only in special circumstances, at the Executive Director's discretion, there will be a scholarship exceeding $1,500.00.
- Applications will be accepted from member organizations only and must indicate that the candidate has actively contributed to the work of their organization within the last five years. One application per member organization will be accepted.

Process for Selection

- The completed scholarship form must be submitted by the member organization no later than December 31st of the previous year of the event. Discretion can be provided to the Executive Director to extend this deadline.
- The successful recipient will be selected by lottery of the qualified applicants.

*All applicants will receive written acknowledgement of the status of their application.

 Items related to a scholarship up to the total amount allocated, will be reimbursed upon receipt.
